SOLDIERS KILL 13 VOLUNTEERS IN CORK

Seven Other Tragedies Are Reported in Various Parts of Erin

FIND BURIED ARMS

Fourteen Manchester Homes Burned —Loss $200,000—Erin Leaders Interned Alleges Spy's Throat Cut.

Cork, Feb. 21.—Thirteen civilians were killed and eight captured, of whom three were wounded, in an engagement yesterday afternoon in the district between Lisgoold and Middleton, Cork county, according to a general headquarters' report. This is believed to be the largest number of casualties among the members of the Irish Republican Army in any single encounter.

A detachment of the Hampshire regiment surprised a party of civilians in a house on the outskirts of Midleton. The civilian forces split up, some of them remaining in the house while the others took up positions in the garden. In brisk fighting one soldier was slightly wounded and the civilians were dispersed and pursued. A search of the house revealed quantities of buried arms and ammunition.

The killing of seven persons in various sections of Ireland was reported yesterday.

Former Sergeant Nohilly, who was wounded yesterday, was taken from his bed in a hospital yesterday and shot dead. A laborer was shot dead at Cashel and and another was seriously wounded at Mullagh Meath last night.

A party of armed men last night shot and killed William O'Connell and Matthew Sweetman, Protestant farmers, in Lissanubig, Skibbereen. At Galway District Councilor John Geoghegan was taken from his bed by two masked men, who told him he had been convicted of treason.

In County Clare a number of youths were called upon to halt yesterday, and, refusing, two of them, brothers, by the name of Donovan, 14 and 18 years old, were killed.

Nine members of the Cork Corporation and other leading men of South Ireland were among 80 persons sent to the Spike Island internment camp Saturday as political prisoners.

According to a report issued last night by Dublin Castle, search yesterday in rooms in South Frederick street disclosed evidence that they had been used as headquarters for the Irish Republican army. Important documents were seized. No arrests were made.

Shortly before noon yesterday, according to the castle reports, an automobile with an officer and three auxiliary police was attacked while halting outside the Phibsboro Church. A bomb was thrown and revolver shots were fired at the machine from all sides.

The occupants of the car returned the fire and then gave chase. One of the attacking party was seen to have been wounded, but all the men escaped None of the auxiliaries was hurt.

Manchester, England, Feb. 21.—Altogether 14 farm fires Saturday night Machinery, buildings and stacks were damaged to the amount of 40,000 pounds.

The places visited by the incendiaries included Altrincham, Dunham, Rumston, Charlton, Baugley, Whitefield and the country around Southport. In one case a farmer and his two sons were ordered by a man to put up their hands. When they refused to accede the man fired. They dashed for home and five more shots were fired at them, but without doing any harm.

London, Feb. 21.—On the arrival of the Fishguad train at Paddington Station yesterday George Tilson, of Black Rock, County Cork, was found in the lavatory compartment with his throat cut. A paper attached to his clothes was inscribed: "Shadowed from Ireland."

The man was still conscious, but incoherent. He was removed to a hospital, where he died.

Belfast, Feb. 21.—George Tilson was connected with a firm of wholesale wine merchants. He recently received a threatening letter charging him with spying in Ireland and ordering him to quit Ireland. At first he ignored the threat, but later relatives persuaded him to proceed on a visit to his uncle in Hastings. The relatives deny that Tilson was engaged in political affairs.

Held For Grand Jury

Merchant Where Peach Extract is Found Arrested

A third ward grocer today was charged in the police court with having about two dozen bottles of peach extract at his place of business. Policeman Magner, who cited him to court, testified that he found the extract in a hall in the rear of the store.

Through his attorney, Carl Budwesky, the accused waived the formality of a preliminary hearing and was held for the action of the grand jury and the court fixed his bond in the sum of $100.

The wife of the proprietor was charged with abusive language to the officer. She denied the charge and was acquitted with a reprimand.

57 Years Old

Knights of Pythias Attend Services at Second Presbyterian Church Last Night

A service of unusual interest was held in the Second Presbyterian Church last evening when the pastor Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, preached a special sermon and the choir rendered a fine musical program, it being the 57th anniversary of the Order of the Knights of Pythias.

The members of Oriental Lodge were present. Dr. Allison spoke of the founding of the fraternal order by J .H. Rathbone in Washington, D. C., on February 19th, 1864, and its rapid growth. He took as his text John 15:13, and alluded to the story of the friendship of Damon and Pythias, two citizens of Sicily, in the ancient city of Syracuse and emphasized the principles of friendship, charity and benevolence.

He forcefully urged all to be true Knights in their obligations to help the needy, care for the widow, educate the orphan and champion the right.

The committee on arrangements were J. W. Reeves, I. S. Groves and W. W. Clements.

NEW DEMOCRATIC SECRETARY

Washington, Feb. 21.—Appointment of Burt New, an attorney of Indianapolis, as executive secretary of the Democratic National Committee, was announced yesterday by Chairman White. The appointment was made under resolutions adopted at the meeting here last Thursday of the national committee's executive committee.

Mr. New, who will have direct charge of the party's national headquarters here, will assume his duties March 1. During the last campaign Mr. New was acting chairman of the Indiana Democratic State Central Committee, and he acted as secretary of the same committee during the 1912 campaign. He served as legal adviser to Vice President Marshall when he was Governor of Indiana, and also to Governor Ralston.

WANTS LAST PENNY FROM GERMANY

Briand Declares He Will Not Reduce Total One Centime

CONFER IN LONDON

Allies Are Not in a Agreement on Sevres Treaty—France to Quit Cilicia —Venizalos In Harmony.

London, Feb. 21.—Aristide Briand, the French Prime Minister, and General Berthelot arrived in London yesterday evening for the Allied conference with the announced resolute purpose of not reducing by as much as a centime the total reparations that Germany must pay as a result of the World War as agreed to at the recent Paris conference. But the Premier is disposed to examine attentively, and even sympathetically, the conditions of payment, should the German delegates come to London with proposals reasonably within the scope of the Allied decisions.

Although M. Briand does not regard the 12 per cent. tax upon the value of German goods sent abroad as a nexport duty, because it may be paid from internal or any other revenue, yet in view of American criticism that clause may be modified if another suitable standard to meet Germany's expanding prosperity can be found. Exports, within M. Briand's definition of the word, were selected simply as variable national earning.

German reparations will not be considered formally until the Near Eastern questions are settled; but reparations dominate the thought of the French delegation, and this fact probably will have an important influence on the decision of the conference respecting the Turkish arrangements.

The French and British governments are not in entire agreement upon the Sevres Treaty. It is the impression that Premier Lloyd George, of Great Britain, will ask M. Briand to yield in some respects on the Turkish treaty in return for steadfast British support with regard to reparations.

The French have all but decided to withdraw from Cilicia, but to retain the mandate for Syria, which is partially pacified, according to General Gouraud, commander of the French Army in the Near East. The situation in Cilicia promises prolonged trouble. General Gouraud, who came to London with the French mission, considers that France could now with draw from Cilicia without loss of prestige, having won a victory at Aintab.

France has 80,000 men in Turkey, but if the war is to be continued there another 60,000 men probably would be require to finish the campaign. The French Cabinet does not desire to spend any more lives on Turkish mandates, and prefers to reach an agreement with the Nationalists under Mustapha Kemal Pasha.

The word "revision" is to be carefully avoided as regards the Sevres Treaty on the ground that to revise any treaty tends to render less permanent and solid all postwar treaties Instead of "revision" the word "adjustment" to fit changed conditions or the modification of certain articles of the treaty will be used.

Since M. Venizelos, the former Greek Premier, has arrived at an understanding with the Greek Cabinet, although not with the Greek King, he also is said to have come to an understanding with Mr. Lloyd George to save all, or as much as possible, of the Sevres Treaty so that Greece may retain all of her newly acquired territory. M. Venizelos asserts that the Greek Army can complete a victory for Greece without calling on the Allies for more money or more troops. He asks why, therefore, Greece should abandon the execution of a plan partially realized and when its fulfillment is in sight. Mr. Lloyd George is said to have accepted broadly this judgment and to desire the retention of the essential points of the Sevres document.

M. Venizelos, although without official relation to the conference, is likely to prove a dominating personality in the settlement of the future of the Turkish Empire. Count Sforza,

BECAME A BANDIT TO FEED HER BABY

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Why a woman became a robber was recounted yesterday when Mrs. Elizabeth Crowell and her husband, George B. Crowell were arrested for holding up the pharmacy of N. U. Mason at 856 Montrose Avenue on the night of January 29. They obtained $30 and two books of American Express Co. money orders. They were trailed through the money orders.

"What made you do it?" Mrs. Crowell was asked.

"Robert," she said, pointing to her 5 year old son; "Robert was without shoes and clothes. That wasn't so bad, but we weren't eating regularly and he had to go to bed hungry. He would cry. That made me."

A mass meeting of the commuters of the Washington-Virginia Railway will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the auditorium of the chamber of commerce to complete plans for the protest against the increase in fare asked by the Washington-Virginia Railway.

The case will be heard Friday morning in Washington before the Interstate Commerce Commission and efforts will be made at this meeting to arrange for a delegation of Alexandria commuters to be present at the hearing. The hour set for the case is 10 o'clock.

Every commuter is urged to attend this meeting as this is the last meeting of the commuters before the hearing and all details for the fight against the trolley company will have to be completed at this meeting.

As hertofore stated, the railway company seeks to increase the price of the round trip from thirty-eight to forty-eight cents, and to increase the price of the monthly ticket and to take off the twenty-five trip ticket

The commuters will be represented at the hearing by Attorney Conrad Syme, former corporation counsel of the District of Columbia. The commuters in Arlington county will be represented by counsel.

Jr. Audubon Club

School Pupils go to Country to See Birds

The boys and girls of the Washington and Lee School Audubon Club Saturday had a charming day and saw many beautiful birds, hundreds of wild ducks, and a flock of geese flying "in a wave" from the river bank at Wellington.

After lunch one hour was given to games and the clubs then walked about two miles to the "Oaks" and boarded the train for Alexandria. All with rosy cheeks and joy in their young faces, after the fresh, pure air of the beautiful country, so full of rare wild life which should have the protection of all property owners of that section.

Miss Katherine H. Stuart conducted the outing, showing in the field the work of each specimen as it appeared on the trees or ground, destroying the injurious eggs of insects or weed seeds, or as planters of the forests. Among the rare ducks were noted Redbreasted Mergansers, Canbasback Shoolers, Mallard and many others.

Many birds were in song. The beautiful winter visitor, Fox Sparrow, was quite abundant and its habit of scratching like a hen gave the children great pleasure, and was seen at close range

TO-DAY'S THOUGHT. America has furnished to the world the character of Washington. And if our American institutions had done nothing else, that alone would have entitled them to the respect of mankind.

Daniel Webster.

Tomorrow's Anniversary. It would be difficult, indeed, to shed any new light on the life and character of Washington. A complete bibliography of the books and monographs on this most famous of all Americans would make a large volume in itself. Not a school-child in our land that does not know his face; that does not know more about his life than any other man in history. Even the millions of immigrants who have landed at Castle Garden for a century past, have known his name and fame, when they could not have told who the then president of the United States might be.

His biography has been appropriated by the entire world. No hamlet so remote, no hidden hut in the wilderness, but his name will bring the flush of hope and enthusiasm to the humble dweller therein. His lofty lineaments, his benign yet dignified expression, his native majesty, typify to whole peoples the sublimity of human character. His name is synonymous with liberty wherever humanity breathes and aspires.

Bolivar, the greatest of South American patriots, drew the inspiration of his life's work from our own Washington, and nobly confessed it. For two centuries, wherever in all the world, men have unsheathed the sword in the cause of freedom, they have had his name on their reverent lips, and bowed with heads unbared, as at a shrine, before his portrait.

He refused a kingdom; he sustained and comforted the distress of his ragged and starving armies; he stood as a rock while the petty tempests of cabal and conspiracy raged around him; he bore with a snarling and penurious Congress, in the crises of his country's war for independence. Yet through it all he maintained a calm and unruffled dignity.

A comparison of his life with that of Napoleon is perhaps the most instructive lesson in the annals of man. It stresses and points out as naught else can do the one indisputable fact that the Divine Hand writes history. That His laws are abiding and that nations rise or fall as they render obedience to them.

The claim of Washington, therefore, to enduring fame, lies in his character. The battles of mighty soldiers perish, sooner or later, from recorded memory. Kingdoms rise, decline, and are buried in the sands of time, forever forgotten. But human virtue, wedded to a mighty character, persists through the ages, because it is that part of man's endowment that is eternal on earth and in heaven.

Cherry Day Tomorrow Tomorrow the young lads and ladies of the city will sell cherries on the streets to whomever will buy. A committee of Alexandria's charming women will likewise go to Mt. Vernon, where the pilgrims to the nation's shrine will also be besought to buy. This pleasant custom had its origin some years ago with the ingenious ladies who had charge of the city children's playgrounds. They have made it an annual success. The cause is right worthy—the playgrounds will benefit—and we should all buy cherries tomorrow. Cherries are appropriate, too, since they remind us of the great character who not only dignifies our own history, but whose deeds are now a part of the world's heritage.

Rousing Rally Called Tonight!

The meeting tonight at the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce, at 8 o'clock, in the Washington Virginia Railway fight, should bring out every inhabitant of this city. All citizens are invited and the Committee urge, as an imperative duty, that all the men and women patrons of that railroad turn out en masse.

This means everybody; and the life-or-death question that is now before the entire community of prohibitive interurban rates, demands a huge attendance. We ask our readers not only to come themselves but to bring their friends. The bigger the meeting the greater the enthusiasm.

We need a shouting, fighting-mad crowd, charged with pep and ginger, and with lungs that will wake the sleeping echoes from here to Washington. The committees of the various organizations, especially the Commuters' Executive Committee, the attorneys, and those among us who generally bear the public burdens, have done magnificent work. They need your presence tonight. Don't leave it to George. He never won a fight in his life! Come yourself, and come early.

The weather may be bad, the road rough, and the traveling hard, but don't let that keep you away. The greater the obstacles the greater the victory! The report of the committee will be thorough, convincing, and encouraging.

The hearing will be held Friday, this week, and tonight will be the last chance to stamp the heel of disapproval on the outrageous raise in fares demanded by the stock-and-bond-holders of the Washington-Virginia Railway. Shall the rights of the citizens who have been prevailed upon; who have been invited and insidiously induced to build their little homes; to take up their employments; to schedule the whole future of themselves and their dependents upon a promise of reasonable commuting rates:—shall their rights be made subservient to the pecuniary interests of a few holders of the road's securities, whose only apparent ambition is to raise the fares from time to time, to such figures as will pay a handsome return on a capitalization and a bonded debt that may be largely in excess of a rational valuation?

This is the question. This it is that you are called upon to voice with your endorsement and earnest support tonight.

Come; come early; and stop on the way and get your friends. Don't take no for their answer. Bring them! The game is worth it, and you and they will never regret it.

ONE HURT IN WRECK ON SOUTHERN MAIN LINE

Charlotteaville, Va., Feb. 21.—One man was slightly hurt last night when northbound passenger train No. 40 crashed into the rear end of a freight train about ten miles south of here on the Southern Railway.

It is understood here that there were two or three poultry cars on the freight train near the end that were crushed as a result of the collision.

TRIAL OF MINGO SLAYERS WILL NOT CLOSE FOR WEEKS

Williamson, W. Va., Feb. 21.—Counsel for both sides of the trial in progress here of 19 men accused of having had a hand in the Mattewan street battle last May, that resulted in the death of Albert C. Felts, a detective, and nine other persons, have estimated that it will require at least three weeks to close the case Over four weeks have alreadq been consumed in selecting a jury and in the examination of witnesses.

Greater interest has been aroused here by an intimation emanating from the prosecuting attorney's office that little prospect of a conviction of all the defendants is entertained and that the request for early additional indictments of persons thus far not conected with the case is being considered.

No official statement definitely presaging these moves by the Commonwealth thus far has been given out, but persons closely interested in the progress of events claim to see much significance in the reports, which are not officially denied.

Legion Warns U. S. Against Revival of Hun Propaganda

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 21.—American Legion posts throughout the United States were asked last night by the legion's national headquarters here to watch for a revival of German propaganda in this country

A bulletin sent out by the national headquarters said the object of the propaganda seemed intended to turn American sentiment against the allies and to create a "powerful national political machine by the amalgamation of the disloyal elements in our population."

Mass meetings in New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago, Milwaukee, Louisville, Omaha and Cleveland have been planned, the bulletin said, as "one of the first national manifestations" of the propaganda campaign.

Two Sunday Fires in Georgia Cities do $250,000 Damage

Tifton, Ga., Feb. 21.—Fire destroyed four Tifton business concerns yesterday afternoon, causing a loss of $150,000.

For a time it looked as if the whole town would be wiped out, and fire companies were brought here from Cordele, Fitzgerald and Sylvester.

The fire started on the third floor of the Darnell Dry Goods Company. When the roof of the building fell, flames fanned by a stiff breeze, leaped across Second Street and threatened the entire northern half of the business section.

Besides gutting the Darnell building flames caused heavy damage to the Ivey Furniture Company, the Kent Music and Furniture Company and the Parker Grocery Company.

UNITED STATES RICH ENOUGH TO HAVE GOOD SCHOOLS

"The United States is not a pauper community," said the U. S. Commissioner of Education, in a recent address. "Keep that in mind when you are discussing more money for the salaries of educators. Remember that the United States has two-fifths of the gold in the world, that the income of its people from $60,000,000,000 to $75,000,000,000 annually, and that nearly $8,000,000,000 was paid into the Federal treasury last year. We can afford to educate our 27,000,000 children.

"The United States should be spending today in its schools three times what it is spending in order to maintain an adequate educational system. We should spend $3,000,000,000 a year instead of $1,200,000,000 we spent last year. But if we can accomplish the $3,000,000,000 program within the next three years we should be fairly well satisfied."

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother, ELLEN M. LYONS, who departed this life four years ago, February 20, 1917.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er the border land we left her,
Soon to meet and part no more.
When we leave this world of changes,
When we leave this world of care,
We shall find our missing loved one
In our father's mansion fair.
By her devoted husband and daughter
Weep not that her toils are over,
Weep not that her race is run,
God grant we may rest as calmly,
When our work like hers is done.
Till then we yield with gladness our grandmother to keep His and rejoice in the sweet assurance He giveth His loved one sleep.
By her loving grandchildren.

BABE RUTH GOES SOUTH TO DROP WEIGHT

New York, Feb. 21.—Babe Ruth, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth, left yesterday afternoon for Hot Springs, Ark., where the "Home Run King," will start training on Tuesday for a new season. The Babe looked a little round about the middle, and admitted that he took on flesh this winter despite the fact that he spent a lot of time in hunting. He is confident that a few weeks at the baths, long jaunts and mountain climbing will take off his extra pounds before he joins the main squad of Yanks.

At Hot Springs Ruth will join Hoyt, Harper and Mays, the Yankee pitchers already taking the baths there. Ten members of the Brooklyn Club, including Ruth's latest chum, Jeff Pfeffer, will join the four Yankees in the middle of the week.

Phone Cries of Cat Bring Police Riot Squad to Residence

Chester, Pa., Feb. 21.—The cries of a pet cat into the mouthpiece of a telephone at a house on West Third street yesterday brought out a large detachment of police and plain clothes men bent on frustrating a burglary and possibly saving a life.

A telephone operator at the central exchange called the police department and informed the desk sergeant that cries of distress were coming from the telephone at the Third street house. A patrol wagon full of policemen was hurried to the scene and surrounded the house. Repeated knocks at the door brought no answer and the officers forced an entrance. They found the cat with one of its feet caught in an ice chest. In its struggle to get free it had knocked the receiver from the telephone, which was lying on the floor and was crying directly into the mouthpiece.

SERMON ON WASHINGTON AT TRINITY M. E. CHURCH

Dr. D. H. Martin last night in his sermon on George Washington at Trinity M. E. Church said:

"Washington deserves as much credit for the yielding to a life of ease and luxury and thus becoming nothing as Lincoln deserves praise for attaining greatness in the face of poverty and adverse circumstances.

Two things contrive to make a great man—great natural ability and great opportunity—These two requirements met in the life of Washington and the result was a world character. One of the touching things in the life of Washington was his visit to his aged mother at Fredericksburg on his way from Yorktown to retirement at Mt. Vernon. He paid all the respect to his mother that a humble subject would to a queen. Such has always been the influence of the mother life in the line of the world's great men.

When only 22 years old Washington was sent to Ohio on a most important mission by the Governor of Virginia. Thus we are reminded that the world does not commit its great responsibility into the hands of irresponsible young men.

In the past few days a book entitled "Washington the Man and the Mason," written by Mr. Charles H. Callahan, respected citizen of Alexandria, has fallen into my hands and I have read it with great interest and profit. It has made me feel that, not only Alexandria, but all this country round for many miles has been made a sacred shrine by the life and association of George Washington. I feel that it is a privilege to live and labor in a city made famous the world over and whose soil has been sanctified and hallowed by the association of Washington.

The Masonic order is a potent influence in the world for the moral uplift and welfare of humanity. Washington the Mason made Alexandria a shrine to which come yearly Masonic pilgrims not only from America but all the world. Studying the life of Washington as the statesman we are led to believe that if Washington were living today he would use his influence against undue alliances with foreign nations, he would oppose the loaning of American money to European countries, and would fight the idea of a large military establishment. He would strive for that concerted action by the nation that would lead to disarmament and thus remove from the people the burden of supporting and maintaining boots and spurs unnecessarily.

If Washington were living today he would preach the gospel of economy to the masses of the American people. Washington hated shams of all kinds. He was a prophet who could look forward and see the time when the hand of right and justice would sweep the foundations from under the shams of the old world. The democratic life of the Western republic has become too much tinctured with the point of display that characterize Europe and Washington would endorse Harding's ideas of an economical and unpretentious inaugural. In the days when the life of the Western continent was repulsive and rotten with its belief in Atheism, Agnosticism and infidelity, the character of Washington stood out splendid in its belief in God and the fundamental principles of Christianity. He was a devout churchman and was not ashamed, but considered it a privilege, as well as a duty to openly and conspicuously profess Christ before the world. The secret of the power of the personality of Washington was his belief in prayer. He had power with men because he talked with God. Washington prayed for the life of the republic. Like Jacob of old wrestling with the angel, Washington hung on to God in prayer until the victory was his.

There is need today that we pray for the life and prosperity of the Republic. It is well for Mr. Harding to consult the leading minds of America, but it is far more important that Mr. Harding, like Washington, get down on his knees and ask God for help.

"The price of the FORDSON Tractor has been reduced from $790.00 to $625.00, effective immediately.

"This price change has been made possible through lower costs of materials and the fact that we are now located in our new Tractor Plant with greatly increased economic manufacturing facilities in immediate connection with our foundry and machine shops and large blast furnaces where iron is poured directly from the ore, giving us maximum efficiency with the power to reduce cost of production, and down comes the price in line with our policy to market our products at the lowest possible figure without in any way affecting our high standard of quality.

"We are particularly pleased in being able to bring about this big reduction in price at this time because the farmer needs all the help we can give him and this big cut in price will be the means of placing a valuable power unit within the reach of practically every one of them, not to mention industrial and commercial concerns which likewise have benefitted through its use and are already realizing, to a much greater extent, its value as a power and hauling unit. But particularly has the FORDSON Tractor proved a most valuable factor in the saving of farm labor, at the same time increasing the per acre crop yield as well as making possible a utilization of previously uncultivated land, to say nothing of removing no end of drudgery.

"There is no question that the use of machine power on the farm is the greatest advancement made in the development of agriculture, not only in money saving and money making results, as well as raising the standards of living on the farm to a much higher level, but because of its proved value in making every type of land more productive, and consequently our desire to place the FORDSON within the reach of all.

"THERE IS NO CHANGE IN THE PRESENT FORD CAR AND TRUCK PRICES, which are already at the lowest possible figure and now with rock bottom reached on the tractor price a further reduction in price of either the car, truck or tractor is out of the question; in fact, the big price cuts have been made in anticipation of continuous maximum production and increases may be necessary before long if a large volume of new business is not obtained. Therefore, present prices of Ford products cannot be guaranteed against possible increases."

Ask for the book "The Fordson at Work," which will be supplied free of cost. Let us demonstrate the value of the Fordson on your farm, in your factory, lumber yard, coal yard, or in any general hauling or power work you have to do and let us have your order for a Fordson.

Deciphers Code of Monk's Work on Black Magic

Chicago, Feb. 21.—Dr. Wilfrid N. de Voynich, Bibliophile and manuscript collector, will make an address before the American Philosophical Society in Philadelphia on April 20, which will startle the scientific world Dr. Voynich says he will reveal secrets locked up by Roger Bacon, the thirteenth century wizard, in the code which the doctor has deciphered.

Dr. de Voynich had with him photographic prints of several pages of the book of mystery. Bacon wrote in Latin. His more secret writing, however, he concealed from the world in a code, boasting at the time that the secret would be sealed forever with his death.

The code somewhat resembles ancient Hebrew. Crude illustrations are worked into the text, and these, too, according to Dr. de Voynich, have their significance. Thus far he has deciphered about 20,000 words, but even this small part of the work, which comprises 800,000 words, is a revelation.

Beyond explaining that two of the facsimile pages have to do with the origin of life, Dr. de Voynich refused to discuss the contents of the book. "When the time comes," he said, "I will prove to the world that the 'Black Magic' of the Middle Ages consisted in discoveries far in advance of twentieth century science. For nine years, I have been working on the code."

RICHMOND THEATRE

"The Great Adventure," which marks the debut of Lionel Barrymore as a comedy screen star at the Richmond Theatre today, is from the Arnold Bennett stage comedy of the same name, which marked up such a successful run. From all reports, the picture is surpassing the stage production, and it is predicted that this Lionel Barrymore production released through Associated First National Pictures Inc., will set a new record for entertainment.

In announcing Mr. Barrymore in a comedy role, the Richmond Theatre takes occasion to explain that a "comedy" does not mean "comic" The star's role is dignified and the comedy refined, and no custard pie laughs are promised. Suffice it to say that Mr. Barrymore, in part of the picture, plays the part of his own valet, incidentally attending whist is supposed to be his own funeral.

GAINED FIFTY POUNDS AFTER TYPHOID FEVER

Mrs. C. E. Bragg Overjoyed By The Way Tanlac Restored Her Strength and Weight.

"I was down in bed as helpless as a baby when I began taking Tanlac, but by the time I had finished my third bottle I was walking around and now am enjoying absolutely perfect health," said Mrs. C. E. Bragg, 401 Lynn Street, Danville, Va.

"I was down in bed for a long time with fever, and was so weak I couldn't even turn over. I wasn't able to take any nourishment at all hardly and I had fallen off so much in weight that it frightened me to even think about it. Why, I was nothing more than a mere shadow of what I used to be and just did have the strength to move my hands about a little.

"My right leg was swollen from my knee, down to my foot. It was hard for me to breathe, my nerves were worn to a frazzle and it just seemed that I couldn't get any sleep.

"Finally after the fever left me, and I got so I could look over the papers a little, I read a statement about Tanlac and sent for a bottle. I seemed to feel stronger after each dose and began to eat better and sleep better. When I finished the second bottle I was sitting up in bed and in a short while was able to walk around.

"From then on my improvement was rapid and by the time I had finished the sixth bottle I was doing my housework all by myself and felt perfectly well in every respect. This was more than a year ago and ever since have been in perfect health. My appetite continues splendid and I have actually gained fifty pounds in weight I am not one bit nervous, sleep soundly and, to tell the truth, am never troubled in any way whatever."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, jr., and good druggists everywhere.

Mrs. W. E. Thornton, Little Rock, Ark., writes this: "My little boy had a severe attack of croup, but two doses of Foley's Honey and Tar relieved him, and he went back to sleep and was troubled no more. I would not be without it at any price."

Virginia Good Roads Association

Richmond, Va., Feb. 21.—One stretch of highway, that leading from Washington to Richmond, has brought no less than 5,000 tourists in to Virginia since October 1, 1920.

A. G. Seller, touring manager of the American Automobile Association, made this statement while in Richmond yesterday en route to Florida to map out the best roads for the thousands of tourists who will return north with the coming of spring.

"We have definite figures at our touring headquarters in Washington to show that 5,000 tourists have gone south from Washington through Virginia," said Mr. Seller. "For many reasons, tourist travel has been heavier recently than in years and possibly has never been exceeded in volume.

"Virginia, like every other State through which this travel passes, reaps great benefit," he continued. "The tourists leave behind them a trail of new money to go into circulation in the state. They spend freely because no one would think of motoring to Florida without ample funds."

Virginia roads acted as a barrier to tourists coming into the State, Mr. Seller told V. D. L. Robinson, executive secretary of the Virginia Good Roads Association. Mr. Seller declared that better highways were so badly needed in Virginia that the work of the Virginia Good Roads Association in speeding up their construction and informing the people of the benefits which would come from them was vitally important.

NEAR EAST RELIEF WORK

Richmond, Feb. 21.—Near East Relief work in Virginia is open to every sect. Jew and Gentile, Catholic and Protestant, and to every race, age and sex, Oliver J. Sands, State Chairman of the Relief Body reiterated yesterday.

Mr. Sands emphasized the fact that the starving and freezing of Armenia and Syria are given succor, so far as the funds and resources of the Near East Relief will permit, regardless of religious belief or of color.

Christians, Jews and Mohammedans, white, black, brown and yellow men, women and children, infants and aged—all are alike to the workers of the Near East Relief in the stricken countries. In a like manner every sect and race in Virginia is asked to contribute to this cause by Mr. Sands.

Virginia's quota for 1921 is to raise $300,000 for the purpose of feeding and clothing 5,000 unfortunates. By economical purchasing in large quantities, Mr. Sands, announces, the Near East Relief is able to feed and clothe one child for $60.00 for an entire year. The United States is expected to raise $15,000,000 during the current year for this work, or enough to feed and clothe 250,000.

The State of Virginia raised its quota in 1920 and has made a good start in 1921, Mr. Sands concluded.

Discontinuance of Air Mail Urged by Minnesota Governor

St. Paul, Feb. 21.—Discontinuance of the air mail service until the investigations now being conducted in regard to the service are concluded was urged in a telegram sent to Senator Knute Nelson, of Minnesota, at Washington, by Governor J. A. O. Preus.

The wire was sent after an air mail flier narrowly escaped death near Mendota.

"I do not believe the air mail service is so absolutely necessary as to risk the lives of so many young boys in substandard airplanes and I would strongly urge that you ask the Postmaster General to discontinue this service until the investigations which are being conducted in regard to it may have been concluded."

Mendota, Minn., Feb. 21.—When the air mail plane developed engine trouble and went into a nose dive, near here, Pilot C. C. Evetsole leaped to safety in a parachute from a height of 3,000 feet. He was flying from Minneapolis to Chicago.

GETS $15,000 WHEN BARRED FROM TANGO

Cleveland, Feb. 21.—The enjoyment to be derived from dancing has a cash valuation of $15,000 a jury decided here in the case of Tango Johnson against the Cleveland Railway Company.

Johnson claimed the injury sustained in a car incident had incapacitated him for dancing for the rest of his life and his attorney told the jury that no amount, no matter how large, could compensate his client. The jury fixed damages at $15,000.

AUTO OF TOURIST BURNS ON WAY FROM FLORIDA

Fredericksburg, Va., Feb. 21.—A Columbia Six, four passenger model automobile, owned and driven by Joseph Mangeau, of Marie Anne Est. Montreal, Canada, caught on fire yesterday evening while passing a point on the Spotsylvania highway, near this city, and was almost totally destroyed. Mangeau and wife, a friend and his wife, who were en route from Jacksonville, Fla., to their homes in Canada, after spending the winter in the South, escaped from the burning car without injury.

CARUSO GAINS HEALTH QUICKLY

New York, Feb. 21.—"Satisfactory, but feverish," was the latest bulletin given yesterday on the condition of Enrico Caruso, world famous tenor, who is fast regaining his health, following his attack of pleurisy and heart failure.

The tenor awoke early and demanded that the maid draw back the curtains so that he could watch the falling snow. He then ordered eggs, toast and coffee for his breakfast and appeared cheerful.

Caruso now is planning to recuperate at Atlantic City, following which he will leave for an extended stay at his home in Italy.

The American Tobacco Co.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 21.—The largest sale of automobiles ever held in this country was virtually brought to a close when the last of the 2,350 machines at Camp Holabird was brought under the hammer. Remaining are 1,100 motorcycles and bicycles to be disposed of.

Sales have amounted to about $200,000, making a total of $350,000 for two days. The General Motors Corporation was the heaviest buyer. Although a large number of purchasers came from outside of Baltimore, some of them being from Iowa.

The Camp Holabird band under direction of Douglas Van Deventer, played during the day, keeping buyers and auctioneers in good humor.
